Obituary

Evangelist Daisy Williams was born in Tenaha, Texas to George Handy, Sr. and Josephine Davis Handy. She was the third of eight children. Her parents and four siblings preceded her in death: brothers, Ely Handy, George Handy, Jr. and Gene A. Handy; one sister, Zelma James.

At the age of 14 years, Daisy was saved and sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost at Ennis Chapel Church of God in Christ under the tutelage of Bishop S. L. Ennis. At the age of 17, she united with New Bethel Church of God in Christ Apostolic, under the leadership of the late founder, Bishop A. D. Bradley, where she labored for the Lord for over 60 years.

Daisy was educated in the Richmond Unified School district, graduating from El Cerrito High School. She also attended Contra Costa College.

She was employed at Food Bowl Supermarket for over 25 years before retiring.

Mother Williams, along with Mother Olean Turner, traveled many places, near and far, evangelizing to many souls and many were saved, delivered, healed, reclaimed and filled with the Holy Ghost. She labored and served for over 64 years.

On August 3, 1957, she united in holy matrimony with Eugene Williams, Sr., who preceded her in death.

She leaves to celebrate her homegoing: two daughters, Brenda Joyce Gardner of Rodeo, CA, Mary Elizabeth Anderson of Richmond, CA; one son, Eugene Williams, Jr. of Richmond, CA; four grandchildren, Ebony George, Anthony Watkins, Alex Anderson and Eugene Williams, III; one brother, James Handy; two sisters, Leola Sims and Jeanette Johnson all of Hayward, CA; two sisters-in-law, Mrytis Handy and Emma Jean Williams; nine great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends as well as a special cousin, Supt. Asberry Scott.
